Disclosure

We will not disclose the contents of your prescriptions or disclose any copies of your prescriptions, other than to you, except to:

- (a) the practitioner who issued the prescription;
- (b) the practitioner who is currently treating you;
- (c) a member, inspector or investigator of the Board of Pharmacy, an inspector of the FDA, or an agent of the investigation division of the department of public safety;
- (d) an agency of state government charged with the responsibility of providing medical care for you;
- (e) an insurance carrier, on receipt of your written authorization or your legal guardian authorizing the release of information;
- (f) any person authorized by an order of a district court;
- (g) a member, inspector, or investigator of a professional licensing board that licenses the practitioner who orders the prescriptions filled at the pharmacy; and
- (h) other registered pharmacists for the limited purpose of and to the extent necessary for the exchange of information regarding persons suspected of misusing prescriptions to obtain excessive amounts of drugs or failing to use a drug in conformity with the directions for its use, or taking a drug in combination with other drugs in a manner that could result in injury to that person.

Communicable Diseases

We will not disclose any personal information about an individual who has, or is suspected of having, a communicable disease, without the individual's written consent, except as follows:

- (a) for statistical purposes, as long as the identity of the person is not discernible from the information disclosed;
- (b) in a prosecution for a violation or a proceeding for an injunction brought pursuant to the communicable disease laws;
- (c) in reporting the actual or suspected abuse or neglect of a child or elderly person;

- (d) to any person who has a medical need to know the information for his own protection or for the well-being of a patient or dependent person, as determined by the health authority in accordance with regulations of the state board of health;
- (e) pursuant to specified statutes that require the reporting of certain test results;
- (f) if the disclosure is made to the department of human resources and the person about whom the disclosure is made has been diagnosed as having AIDS or an illness related to HIV and is a recipient of or an applicant for Medicaid;
- (g) to a fireman, police officer or person providing emergency medical services if the board has determined that the information relates to a communicable disease significantly related to that occupation and the information is disclosed in the manner prescribed by the state board of health; and
- (h) if the disclosure is authorized or required by specific statute.
